The Society of Simulation in Healthcare (SSH) and the International Nursing Association for Clinical Simulation and Learning (INACSL) will offer 3 Regional Workshops for 2017. First introduced in September 2016, the SSH/INACSL Regional Workshop is a quality program that provides educational benefits to the target population and geographic region and will allow for partnership with local colleges, universities and hospitals across the country.

These one-day, educational workshops are designed to be a collaborative learning opportunity for persons working in and developing simulation programs.

Annual Sponsors have an opportunity to reach multiple, specific, geographic regions of providers who may not have the opportunity to attend traditional large conference events.

For companies and organizations marketing to or providing products and services to the field of simulation, these workshops provide unique opportunities to position your organization and partner with both SSH and INACSL.

This opportunity will be exclusive to SSH Corporate Council members until March 31, 2017. Don’t delay! Sponsorship opportunities are limited.

2017 Workshop Dates and Locations:

April 22, 2017 – Lubbock, TX
September 23, 2017 – Birmingham, AL
October 13, 2017 – Salt Lake City, UT
