- Worked for or provided contract services to the Council or SSH at any time during the five years preceding his or her appointment as a public member.

Terms: A one-year term is considered as being the period between the first Thursday after consecutive IMSH meetings. Members of the Council serve for a three-year term and can be selected consecutively for one more term not to exceed six years. Officers shall serve their terms to completion. Should individuals desire to be reselected after a six-year consecutive term, they must wait two years prior to being eligible for reselection.

Terms of Officers: The Chair, and either the Chair-Elect or the Immediate Past Chair shall serve as the officers of the Council. The Chair-Elect and Immediate Past Chair shall serve for a one-year term. The Chair shall serve for a two-year term.

Nominations: A call for nominations for general members of the Council shall be conducted annually. Nominees must submit information as required by the published deadline. Nominees must fully comply with Council member requirements as established. Details for the nominations and selections process are in the Nominations and Elections policy.

Selection: All nominations received shall be reviewed by the current Council. The Council shall select from all who are eligible to replace the outgoing Council members as described in the Nominations and Elections policy and ensure the diverse representation of the healthcare simulation community.

Election of Officers: The Council Chair-Elect is elected by the Council through majority vote at the January meeting that is conducted at the International Meeting on Simulation in Healthcare (IMSH). In case of a tie vote, the current Chair's vote will be counted. Details for the nominations and elections process are in the Nominations and Elections policy.

Overlap of Terms: The elections shall be such that roughly one-third of the Council shall be open for nominations and elections each year on a rotating basis. Certification staff shall be responsible for ensuring the appropriate rotation.

Public Member: The public member is appointed by the Chair with the advice and assent of the Council. The public member shall be appointed for a two-year term, and can be reappointed for one additional term for a maximum of four years.

Resignation: Council members may resign for any reason by written notice to SSH Staff and the Chair of the Council.

Removal: A Council member may be removed from office for failure to perform the duties required of members by a 2/3 vote of the Council.

Vacancies: The Officers of the Council shall nominate a new member to complete the remainder of any open position. The Council shall vote on the nominee for approval. In the event of a vacancy in the Chair position, the Chair-Elect shall assume the duties. In the event of a vacancy in the Chair-Elect position, an election will be held. In the event of a vacancy in the Past-Chair position, the Chair with the assent of the Council shall select a current senior general member to perform the duties of the Past-Chair. Additionally, the Chair and appointed senior general member may nominate a new member to fill the open position for the remainder of the previous Past-Chair position, subject to vote of approval by the Council.

SSH Board Liaison: A current member of the SSH Board of Directors shall be assigned by the SSH Board of Directors as a non-voting member of the Council. This member shall serve to coordinate
